

Daily Devotions for the Week of September 19

Monday (09/19) Jeremiah 32:1-3a, 6-15

What would make Jeremiah buy, in front of witnesses, land already captured by the enemy?
What makes us believe that God will fulfill His "impossible" promises?

Tuesday (09/20) Psalm 91: 1-6,14-16

We all are to trade our fears for faith in God.
Do you believe enough to release control and call on Him?

Wednesday (09/21) Amos 6:1a, 4-7

God has blessed many of us with comfortable and secure lives.
Does he expect anything in return?
Do you ever believe you have "done enough" in His name?

Thursday (09/22) Psalm 146

How do you interpret the phrase "Praise the Lord"?
What happens to you when you "Praise the Lord"?
If we are diligent in our praise, how do you accept the words of Jesus – "many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first."

Friday (09/23) 1 Timothy 6:6-19

How do you define being content?
As believers, how do we explain our Christian lives?
We are told to listen to God's direction and do his will.
How do we know when to take action in our faith?
What triggers you to do God's work?

Saturday (09/24) Luke 16: 19-31

Wealth is the almighty temptation. What is your attitude toward your money and possessions?
Do you really believe how much we care for others will get us rewarded or maybe punished on judgment day?

Sunday (9/25)

Worship in-person or online.
