

Daily Devotions for the Week of September 18

Monday (09/18) Exodus 16:2-15

The Israelites were looking for the quickest and easiest way to escape their troubles.

God tested their obedience with detailed instructions.

Do you trust God in your troubled times enough to follow His detailed instructions?

Tuesday (09/19) Psalm 105:1-6, 37-45

God's purpose for saving the Israelites and us was so we would "keep his precepts and observe his laws".

Do you believe you use your freedom to honor Him?

Wednesday (09/20) Jonah 3:10-4:11

God is more merciful than we can imagine and feels compassion for sinners.

What is your attitude toward those who are especially wicked?

Do you want them destroyed?

Or do you wish they could experience God's mercy and forgiveness?

Thursday (09/21) Psalm 145:1-8

The Psalms are prayers that include much praise for God.

When you read the Psalm, make note of the praise given to God.

Can you see the many things he is praised for doing for us?

Friday (09/22) Philippians 1:21-30

Paul encourages the believers to be unified.

Today there is much in-fighting in our denomination.

How do we stand firm against such disagreements?

Saturday (09/23) Matthew 20:1-16

As a long-standing Christian or believer, do you begrudge those who claim Jesus in the last moments of their lives?

Why or why not?

Sunday (9/24) Worship in person or online
